Dairy and Farm Produce.
The grocers and commission dealers of this city complain that the supply of dairy and farm produce is wholly below the demand, causing an incalculable loss to the community and injury to the dealers, who are compelled to seek for supplies elsewhere. It can be safely asserted that no industry will prove so remunerative to the people of Southern California as the production of butter, cheese, potatoes and vegetables generally, the near proximity and availability of our sterile neighbor, Arizona, alone insuring a constantly remunerative market. Small tracts of land from ten to twenty acres, convenient to the city, can be obtained at reasonable figures and with sufficient water supply to meet all demands for stock and produce. Special encouragement should be given by all public spirited citizens to parties who will engage in this line of business.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Second Day's Session of the Convention.

A Permanent Organization Effected—The Outcome of the Convention—The Work of the Convention—The Outcome of the Convention.

WEDNESDAY, July 11, 1892.

Los Angeles Sabbath School Association convened promptly at 10 o'clock, E. A. Edwards in the chair. After devotional exercises, consisting of prayer by Rev. P. H. Robinson of Westminster, and some spirited singing from Gospel Hymns, the programme was taken up, and Rev. William Metcalf, representative of the American Sunday School Union, addressed the convention.

The topic, "The Work of the Auxiliary Convention to the State Convention," Rev. Mr. Metcalf said the subject you will see, is the real live work of this County Association. The address was prepared under six separate heads, and presented in a very forcible manner.

One is to: 1. To prepare to receive the State Sabbath School Convention to meet in this city next May. 2. That the Association shall prepare to contribute its part financially to the State Convention. 3. That we awaken a general interest throughout the county on the Sunday School work. 4. To organize each township into an auxiliary to this County Association. 5. To our country may be able to show strength at the State Convention. 6. To awaken a deeper work of spiritual power in our schools throughout the county. 7. To unite the various religious elements in the Sunday School work. The address was brief, pointed and well received.

A motion prevailed to appoint a committee, consisting of one from each denomination represented, to report on permanent organization. The following committee was appointed: John C. Early, M. E. Church; J. A. Richardson, Presbyterian Church; Mrs. Lucy Shackelford, Congregational Church; W. S. Rogers, M. E. Church; J. W. Fryer, Baptist Church; Mr. Smith, Christian Church.

A motion prevailed to appoint a committee of three to draft a constitution; Rev. F. H. Robinson, Dr. Legmore, Josiah McCoy.

On motion a Committee on Enrollment, consisting of Col. Towne, Mrs. Hewitt and Geo. Haskell, was appointed.

The following telegram was received and read by the Secretary, who read the verses to which reference was made in the telegram:

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11, 1892.
Geo. T. HANLEY—Sunday School Convention, Arcadia Hall, Los Angeles, Cal.

Sorry I cannot be with you. Get every school enlisted, making Los Angeles the largest city in the West. Cor., 12, 5th, 6th and 25th verses. Mail four copies newspaper reports.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON NOMINATION.
Col. G. Wiley Wells and E. A. Edwards were nominated for President, and the Convention proceeded to vote by ballot, which resulted in the election of E. A. Edwards; Recording Secretary, G. T. H. Hanley; Treasurer, Geo. Haskell; Chorister, A. C. Potter.

Convention adjourned at 12 m., with singing and benediction.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
Promptly at 2 p. m. President Edwards called the meeting to order, and Rev. F. H. Robinson led in prayer.

The unfinished business of the morning was then taken up, when Rev. F. H. Robinson, chairman of the Committee on Constitution, offered a report, which after discussion and amendment was adopted.

A motion prevailed to appoint a committee on temperance resolutions—Dr. Parker, Dr. Legmore, Rev. F. H. Robinson, and Geo. Haskell.

A committee of three was appointed to district the county into twelve Sabbath School districts. The committee are Rev. Wm. Metcalf, Rev. A. M. Hough and Judge Venable.

On the subject, "On the Qualification of Teachers." The address was characterized by point, brevity and force. Others joined in the discussion. Rev. C. J. Hutchins delivered an address on the subject, "The Relations of Church Officers and Members to the Sunday School." It was an interesting and admirable line of thought on the subject.

The committee on districting the county reported that the county be divided into fourteen districts, to be known as follows, with the name of the Vice-President representing each district, which was adopted, and the names of those named as follows: Your committee on division of county would recommend that the county be divided into the following named districts, and that the persons whose names appear in connection with the name of each district be elected as Vice-President of this association:

REVENUE SECTION—ADJOURNMENT.
The Fort Street Methodist church was filled last night by an audience to listen to the discussion of the topics specially interesting to Sunday School workers. After the opening exercises Rev. T. E. Curtis delivered an interesting address upon the reciprocal duties of parents and children, drawing largely in his illustrations from the patriarchal character of the Hebrew nation. His subject was "The best methods of rendering moral and material support to the Sunday School."

There was no further discussion by other persons, as announced by the programme.

George T. Hanley then spoke upon the subject of "Teaching the Bible as it is," explaining the duties of teachers and the benefit to be derived from their attending these meetings.

The discussion upon this subject which followed was participated in by Prof. F. D. Bovey, William Metcalf, M. W. Wells, Rev. J. W. Ellis, John C. Brown, Rev. E. S. Chase, Rev. A. M. Hough and Mr. Early.

The debate elicited the fact that there are thirty Sunday Schools in the county and four regular teachers' meetings.

The arguments showed deep thought and research into the subject, and were spicy.

A resolution was offered returning the thanks of the Association to the Methodist and Presbyterian Churches, and to the city press, for favors shown.

The benediction was then pronounced by Rev. J. W. Ellis, and the Association adjourned sine die.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. J. J. Snyder, of the firm of Shepherd & Snyder, fruit and produce dealers of Pueblo, Colorado, arrived over the southern route last evening. He is very favorably impressed with the appearance of Los Angeles and the evidences of its permanent prosperity.

T., is in the city on route to Denver, Colorado, to attend the National Exposition as agent of the justly celebrated Silver King mine of Arizona. CHURCH HISTORY NO. 4.
The War Waxes Hotter—In Nothing Extinguished.

EDITORIAL: It is said that "silence is golden," and it might be so in this case were it not that silence after "Reporter's" last effort on "Church History," might be construed into silent acquiescence. We hasten to reply, on the Shakespearean idea that "If it were done when it is done quickly," "Then 'twould be done quickly."

"Reporter" tells us where he obtained his information, namely from "The Sun" and "West's History of Los Angeles" of the date of 1880. That is about the same as if taking it from rumor. "Reporter's" designs may have been all right, but his judgment was deficient, and he would not know that "The Sun" is in litigation between the two societies whose histories he brought side by side, as a pair. We should be happy in the thought of the entire innocency of "Reporter" as to his preferences, after reading the couplet in No. 3, viz.: "Or set down again in malice."

Had he not, by one stroke of his pen, injured his cause by that statement, he would have been in a better position to write in brackets a few lines above that precious couplet.

He was quoting from said history—Thompson & West—which stated that the Presbyterian Church occupied said brick edifice up to 1864. Here Reporter inserts an opinion, in brackets, as follows: "This date is evidently wrong."

REPORTER: Now, here is the data upon which he bases that broad "evidently." This is the only sentence in all the history he quotes in No. 3 that gives the Presbyterian Church, showing whatever, and Reporter says it is "evidently wrong." Oh!

Now, what are the facts about the length of time which the Presbyterian Church occupied that property? In our last issue, when we showed, from Johnson, Gillette & Gillette's abstract, that the Presbyterian Church owned the lot direct from an "order of the Court"—putting the brick edifice into the hands of the Episcopal Church, is to be found in said abstract, page 73, and bears date of April 1, 1864.

Now, if Reporter meant to say that Thompson & West should have allowed long after the occupants of said brick church, "This date is evidently wrong," and

"In nothing extinguished" or set down again in malice.

Now, Mr. Editor, please do introduce us to Mr. "Reporter." What is his other name? How much we would like to know him! There are so many other items about this affair which we have not space to tell, but my sympathy for Mr. "Reporter" forbids, and I shall leave the matter to his brethren who bring about a domestic misunderstanding. Extend to him the warmest thanks, even for small favors, of yours truly.

JOHN W. ELLIS.

Pined for Contempt.
John Mayer, one of the worst criminals in Los Angeles county or Southern California, was fined one hundred dollars by Judge Adams yesterday morning for contempt of Court. Mayer had been arrested for smoking opium, and Judge Adams started to read the complaint to him when one of the former's "pals" came over and sat down by Mayer and commenced talking to him in a loud, disorderly manner. Judge Adams asked him to keep quiet till the complaint was read, which was refused. The Judge then ordered the fellow to leave Mayer, when the latter replied in a bullying, insolent manner, "Sit down; say, then; don't mind the Court." Then, turning to the Judge, he said, "You won't be Judge here long, and then I'll fix you, and don't you forget it. You can't come your bullying around me, and in language of similar import. The young man was incontinent set down upon the tune of one hundred dollars fine. There was an aggravated case, and the Judge had quadrupled the amount it would have been too little.

A Fine Home.
Mr. C. H. Richardson, of the firm of Fisher, Richardson & Co., is building a fine residence in Pasadena to cost from $2700 to $3000. It will be of the seaside cottage style of architecture, when completed Mr. and Mrs. Richardson will accommodate a few tourists during the winter months, and a few of their celebrated Jersey cows. When the house is ready for occupancy, they propose going there for a week or two of idyllic life.

The Mendocino Club.
The Mendocino Quinette Club appears to-night in Turveria Hall. The San Bernardino Times has the opinion of them from Monday evening: "We think that the selections given last evening were even better than those played when the company were here before, and the enthusiastic manner in which the performers were received, certainly proved that the audience appreciated their efforts. It is rare that San Bernardino entertainers get a breathing spell, as this given by the Mendocino Club."

THE FAIR.

A Well Attended and Enthusiastic Meeting Last Night.

Address by Interested One—Committee Appointed to Carry the City for Subscriptions.

A very well attended public meeting was held at the City Council chamber last evening, in pursuance to a call published, in connection with the Directors of the Sixth District Agricultural Society, to consider the question of a fair this fall. The meeting was organized by the election of A. W. Potts as Chairman and W. J. Brodick as Secretary.

Mr. F. J. Barretto, President of the Society, made a statement of the condition of the Society, and in the course of his remarks made a comparison of the Sixth District with the other districts in the State.

Mr. Louis Lichtenberger was called upon and made a very full statement regarding the association and the efforts of the Directors to proceed with the preparations necessary to holding a fair this fall. He also called attention to the fact that if a fair be not held this season the franchise for an agricultural association will be lost, and one will not doubt be organized elsewhere. Mr. Lichtenberger's remarks were very well received and elicited applause.

It was stated as a matter of fact that the Directors were unwilling to assume, in view of costly expenses, the expense of holding a fair, and that it will be necessary for the people of Los Angeles to guarantee a sufficient fund to meet premium or contingent expenses or the Directors will not be able to hold an exhibition.

Mr. Stephen M. White was called upon and made a few appropriate remarks, and urged the necessity of making thorough canvass of the city in behalf of the association, as the prosperity of the whole community justified every effort being made from within such great advantages would arise.

Mr. Downey was also called upon and responded in a brief and effective address, calling attention to the progress the community was making and the bright prospects before the people and the inducements for extraordinary effort to have an exhibition worthy the name of Los Angeles.

On motion of Mr. White, a committee of five was appointed by the Chair for the purpose of canvassing the city, as follows: Geo. Downey, Wallace Woodworth, Col. R. S. Baker, W. J. Brodick and Ed. McGinnis.

On motion, Messrs. Barretto and Lichtenberger, Directors of the Agricultural Society, were added to the committee.

Geo. Rice, John R. Briery, Cy. Lyon and J. D. Hickey, street cleaners, were very pleasant and encouraging remarks.

Col. Baker moved that each member of the committee subscribe one hundred dollars to start the matter. The motion was carried unanimously and amid great applause.

A motion for Geo. Downey the meeting adjourned for one week, to meet at the same place and hour, to hear the report of the Canvassing Committee.

ARMORY HALL.
The Eagle Corps' New Hall—A Short Description.

The announcement that Mr. Nadeau had abandoned the project of giving to Los Angeles a first-class theatre, was a great disappointment to the residents of this city, and they received the news with unalloyed sorrow. However, the Eagle Corps have come to the front and propose to fill the breach. A TIMES reporter was shown the plans and drawings for the new armory building yesterday at the address of Mr. C. C. Cheesbrough, which the Eagle Corps propose to erect on Main street near First.

The front elevation is massive, and makes a very fine appearance, with a frontage of seventy-five feet and a height of forty-eight feet, surmounted by ornamental turrets. In the front will be two stories, 24x50, and an ample vestibule. The main hall will be 70x150, with a height of ceiling about 35 feet, having a seating capacity of 1700. The stage will be 60x70 feet—the proscenium 30x70. The hall will be divided into two stories, will be two stories, and the upper story will contain a large business room, four washrooms, a reading-room, music-room, a stage and commodious dressing-rooms. Under the stage, in the basement, will be ladies' and gents' dressing-rooms, a stage and commodious dressing-rooms. The entire length of the building will be 280 feet. The whole city is furnished a hall where mass meetings and popular gathering may always be held. Incidentally we have heard that the Agricultural Society has already spoken for the use of Armory Hall for their exhibition. This, if it can be made ready by the time of holding the fair, will
